

GWS Reduces Time-to-Market and Improves Bottom Line for Entertainment Companies

GlobalWare Solutions (GWS) provides a suite of global e-commerce technologies, fulfillment services and customer care solutions tailored for the Entertainment industry. As a trusted partner for major record labels, GWS offers faster time-to-market, increased flexibility and control, and lower total cost.

Supporting both digital front-end and physical product delivery, Globalware provides a great alternative for Entertainment and Media product distribution in North America, Europe and Asia.

Globalware is the right choice for

- Quickly and cost effectively launching artist, title and brand stores
- Accurate physical and digital product delivery
- Managing micro-transactions, pre-orders and complex promotions

Whether it's meeting tight deadlines or managing inventory and budget goals, GWS can help you to significantly reduce or eliminate the indirect costs associated with ecommerce, fulfillment and customer care.
